ORLEANS

Miss Marie Darling has been ill for several days.

John Morley of Worcester visited in town Monday.

Robert Wells, who has been working in St. Johnsbury, is home again.

E. D. Stafford has gone to Milbury, Mass., to do painting and papering.

F. E. Wheeler is back in the passenger station after an illness of over a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wilkie of East Ryegate visited in town Friday and Saturday.

All the stores will be open from now until after Christmas. Do your shopping early.

Miss Dale Whipple has been out of school on account of ill health for several days.

Red Cross Christmas stamps may be purchased at O. W. Locke's store.

Help fight the dread disease, tuberculosis.

Mrs. Dora Aiken, who has been quite ill with typhoid fever, has been moved to the home of her mother, Mrs.
Geo. Stevens.

Richard Grant broke his arm while sliding last week. He is young and vigorous and won't be long without the use of it.

The veneer mill is partly shut down on account of lack of logs. If we can get some snow to make sledding good there will be lumber in abundance.

A walk is being constructed alongside the present postoffice for convenience of taking and sending out mail.
This is a regulation of the department.

The W. C. T. U. met with Mrs. Geo.
Twombly Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. H.
T. Seaver of Barton spoke on equal suffrage and a very pleasant and interesting meeting was held.

Mrs. Vienna Parker, who lived here with Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Twombly, died at their home in Beebe last week.
The body was carried to Brownington Center for interment Friday.

Congregational Church Notes.

The midweek service will be held in the vestry tonight at 7.30. Topic, "Comradeship with Christ." This ought to be an interesting and helpful theme. In connection with service some matters pertaining to the annual roll call of the church will be considered.

Next Sunday will be observed as Christmas Sunday. The pastor will speak upon subjects appropriate to the day at both the morning and evening services. There will be some excellent music by the choir which will consist of the following: Messrs Dodge and Taplin, tenors; Miss Darling, Mrs. Alden and Mrs. Gauvin, soprano; Mrs. Hall and Miss Lothrop, altos; Messrs. Turnbull and Sargent, basses. At the morning service the following will be rendered: organ voluntary, March from "Aida"; anthem by the full choir, "Send Out Thy Light," Gounod, "The Pilgrims of the Night," Parker; soprano solo, Miss Esther Perley, "O, Holy Night," by Adam; alto solo, Miss Lothrop, "A Song of Glory" by J. Faure; cello solo, selected, Dr. Webster. All not attending elsewhere are cordially invited.

The Sunday school will meet as usual at the close of morning worship.
Classes for all ages already organized and a hearty welcome to all who can attend.

The Epworth League meets at 6.30 o'clock. Topic for study, "How Can I Make a Glad Christmas for those Who have Made Many Christmases for Me?" Mrs. Turner, leader.

Carl Willey assisted the choir Sunday morning, singing the solo in the anthem, "The King of Love My Shepherd Is," very impressively.

The children and youth of the Sunday school are to have supper at the church vestries next Tuesday at 5 o'clock. Any children not now members of a Sunday school are also cordially invited. There will be something on the Christmas trees for all the children.

Father Cray from East Albany who has been supplying the Catholic church, has been transferred to Proctor.
His genial appearance and good fellowship will be missed by all who knew him here.

The next number on the Masonic lecture course is Montville Flowers, the "Illustrative lecturer." He gives life lectures with illustrative acting.
The date is Wednesday, Dec. 24.
Don't forget it.

It would be hard to find prettier decorations in stores than are found here in Orleans. A variety of designs and the large selection of gifts displayed should allow anyone to make a choice without going anywhere else.

A spirit of unrest seems to be in the air. Several unmanly "brawls" have occurred on the streets and it almost seems unsafe to walk peacefully along the thoroughfares. No credit is gained by such acts and a good deal of discredit may result.

H. H. Person has been to all houses and inspected stoves and chimneys per order of the fire commissioners.
Several cases which were very hazardous to property were found and should be repaired at once. It is for the safety of property and lives that this step is taken and should be looked at in this light. It is hoped that there will be no need for an inspection to determine whether the dangers have been eliminated.

"The Barton Cook Book" is on sale at O. W. Locke's store. This is one of the best cook books ever published in Vermont. It contains 225 pages of fine home receipts indexed in such a manner that any given receipt may be found immediately. The book comes in two bindings, an oilcloth board binding which sells for $1 and a limp paper-cloth cover which sells for 75 cents. They make excellent Christmas gifts. The book is published by the Barton Village Improvement society and was printed by the Monitor Press.

DUTCH BELTED CATTLE.

Once Nearly Exterminated, They Are Now Bred by the Nobility.

Dutch belted cattle originated in Holland several hundred years ago.
At the time of the great Holland wars they were nearly exterminated by the invading armies, and the few that remained became the property of the nobility, who have bred them pure ever since, but do not willingly part with them. They are known in Holland as Veldlagers, which name means "wrapped around with a sheet."

In color they are black, with a band of pure white entirely around the body.
They may also have white fore feet, white hind feet and legs up to the gambrels and a white switch. The "belt" varies in width. On some it is but a few inches wide. On others it reaches back on the hips and forward on the shoulders. Usually it covers the body from just in front of the hips nearly to the shoulders.

They have the prominent eyes, thin neck, silky hair, soft skin, elevated flanks, broad hips, long, slim tails, shapely, well placed udders, prominent milk veins and so called milk form, which make up the dairy type of cow.
They are very tame and docile, hardy and vigorous.—G. G. Gibbs in American Cultivator.

STOPPING THE EARTH.

It Would Generate Heat Enough to Turn Our Globe to Vapor.

The stopping of a projectile always results in the generation of heat. The velocity and weight of a projectile being known, the amount of heat developed by its stoppage can be calculated.
In the case of large bodies moving rapidly the result of the calculation is something astounding.

For example, the earth weighs 6,000-000,000,000 tons and travels in its orbit at the rate of over eighteen miles a second. Should it strike a target strong enough to stop its motion the heat developed by the shock would be sufficient not merely to fuse the earth, but also to reduce a large portion of it to vapor. It has been calculated that the amount of heat generated by a collision so colossal would equal that obtained from the burning of fourteen globes of coal each equal to the earth in size.

And should the earth after its stoppage fall into the sun, as it certainly would do, the amount of heat that would be developed by its impact on the sun would be equal to that generated by the combustion of 5,000 earths of solid carbon.

Two Waterloos.

It is a very curious fact that a good many people do not know that two battles were fought at Waterloo. Both of these were fought against the French, the first under the command of the Duke of Marlborough on Aug.
17, 1705, who on this date actually occupied the same ground as the Duke of Wellington did a little more than a century later, June 17, 1815, the only difference being that the former was marching on Brussels and the latter was marching from Brussels. In the first battle the French were defending Brussels. They marched out to meet Marlborough, but owing to the slack-ness on the part of Schlangeburg, the Dutch general, who was fighting with him, it was not a success, Marlborough only taking a few of the French troops as prisoners. The following one, fought against Napoleon by Wellington, proved to be one of the greatest victories ever recorded in the annals of England.
